Location

11 Davy Court offers a modern office setting within Central Park, one of Rugby's most established business locations. Positioned just off the A426, the office is located less than 1 mile from Junction 1 of the M6, and only 5 miles from Junction 20 of the M1, providing exceptional connectivity to the wider midlands motorway network.

The surrounding estate is home to a strong mix of professional, logistics and service-sector businesses, creating a well-supported commercial environment. Local amenities, public transport links and Rugby town centre are all within easy reach, making it a practical and well-connected base for office occupiers.

Coventry

Coventry is a city in central England. It's known for the medieval Coventry Cathedral, which was left in ruins after a WWII bombing. A 20th-century replacement, with abstract stained glass, stands beside it. The collection at the Herbert Art Gallery & Museum includes paintings of local heroine Lady Godiva. A statue of her, naked on horseback, is nearby. The 14th-century St. Mary's Guildhall has a vaulted crypt.

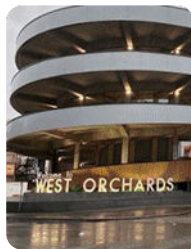

Population: 345,324 (2021)

Metro population: 651,600

Area: 98.54 km²

Coventry is the ninth largest city in England and the twelfth largest in the United Kingdom, with a population of 360,700 as of the mid-year population estimates, making it the second largest Local Authority in the West Midlands.

Coventry is a lively, multicultural city with a rich history embracing the old and new. Nowhere is this more evident than in the Cathedral Quarter where the modern architecture and ancient ruins of the two cathedrals dominate cobbled streets with bustling cafes, pubs and restaurants.
